Centre for Young Women's Empowerment

"The Jean Augustine Centre for Young Women's Empowerment believes that an empowered young woman can improve her life and have a positive impact on the world around her"

At the Jean Augustine Centre we are committed to empowering girls and young women during their formative years in order to help guide them on a path for healthy social, emotional, and physical development. We take a holistic approach to empowering girls and young women by providing access to quality programming that focuses on academics, arts, life skills, physical activity, mindfulness, mentorship and leadership. Our mission is to positively influence their outlook on life, broaden their horizons, and most importantly equip them with the ability to empower themselves.

Why is it important to have a dedicated youth space for girls and young women? How do spaces like the Jean Augustine Centre help to empower girls and young women?

- It is a safe space that reduces gender specific barriers to access
- It creates a comfortable space for girls and young women to express themselves and share opinions and ideas
- It is a welcoming space to gather and hang out
- It helps to foster positive female relationships and creates a sense of belonging and community

MISSION & VISION

MISSION

The Jean Augustine Centre for Young Women's Empowerment is committed to building the self-esteem and self-worth of young women and girls by positively influencing their outlook on life, broadening their horizons, and helping them to empower themselves.

VISION

To enrich the lives of girls ages 7 to 17 years old with opportunities that place special emphasis on personal development and experiential learning.

CORE VALUES

EMPOWERMENT is essential for young women and girls to develop the skills, and acquire knowledge, information and the resources they need to achieve a high quality of life and optimum health and well-being.

MENTORSHIP is a long-term, centered in community and built around relationships between positive adult role models and young women facing challenges in their social and personal lives.

Embodying responsible LEADERSHIP with integrity, from a shared vision that inspires and motivates, and with the capacity to grow through change and deliver sustainable outcomes, perfects the ability to enable others to greatness.

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT is working to make a difference in communities. It is essential as young women and girls become empowered that they learn the importance of giving back and helping to build thriving.
