

Position Vacancy

After-School Programs - Cooking & Nutrition Instructor

Effective: October 2020

Pay: $100 per class

Job Type: Contract: 1-2 times per week from 4:30 pm – 6:30 pm (online and in-person)

The Jean Augustine Centre for Young Women's Empowerment is a charitable organization committed to building the self-esteem and self-worth of young women and girls ages 7-17 years old. Our charity strives to achieve this goal by providing empowerment programs designed to develop leadership skills, teach life skills, spark creativity, and encourage learning.

The Jean Augustine Centre is seeking an experienced and highly motivated individual to lead our after-school Cooking & Nutrition Program. Reporting to the Executive Director, the individual will provide instruction to group classes of girls and young women.

Job Description:

- Lead recipe development for Cooking & Nutrition Program
- Provide instruction on cooking, baking, nutrition, and kitchen safety
- Support with grocery shopping for program supplies
- Engage and supervise participants while providing guidance and leadership
- Help maintain a safe and professional work environment

Qualifications:

- Minimum 2 years professional experience as a chef or cook
- Food Handlers Certification
- Minimum one-year demonstrated experience working with children or youth
- Demonstrated leadership skills
- Excellent interpersonal skills, and professional verbal and written communication skills
- Excellent organizational and time management skills
- Police Records Check – Vulnerable Sector required
- CPR and First Aid training an asset

Please send resume to opportunities@jeanaugustinecentre.ca by Friday, October 9, 2020, noting Cooking & Nutrition Instructor in the subject line.

We thank all candidates for their applications. However, only those selected will be contacted.

Individuals from equity seeking groups are encouraged to apply.