The Jean Augustine Centre for Young Women's Empowerment is a charitable organization committed to building the self-esteem and self-worth of young women and girls ages 7-17 years old. We strive to achieve this goal by providing empowerment programs designed to develop leadership skills, teach life skills, spark creativity, and encourage learning.

The Jean Augustine Centre is seeking guest speakers with expertise in:

Art	Law/Legal
Entrepreneurship	Health/Social Work
Education	Self-Development
STEM
Media

Guest speakers are invited to share their experiences and/or lead program activities!

Program Descriptions:

Craft for a Cause: A social entrepreneurship program, for ages 12-17, that provides participants with the skills needed to start their own business. We are seeking guest speakers with experience in graphic design, business development, marketing and more!

Future ME: A career development program, for ages 10-14, in which participants learn their strengths, challenges, skills as well as various career paths. We are seeking dynamic guest speakers to discuss their career experiences as well as develop and facilitate activities related to the skills needed for their profession.

Youth Council: A leadership program, for ages 12-17, with a focus on civic engagement and personal development. We are seeking guest speakers who are engaged with the community and motivated to share their stories of resilience and determination.
